ELIZABETH A. DUNCAN in 11th Hour Fight to Escape Execution

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Duncan, who is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber tomorrow for the third murder of her pregnant daughter-in-law, waged an 11th-hour fight for her life today.

Also feared that some last-minute legal maneuver will delay the execution are Mrs. Mary A. and Elizabeth Duncan, 21, the two men Mrs. Duncan paid to play chess with her daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Duncan, 21.

The two men are slated to die Jan. 11, three days after the 10th anniversary of her death.

In SAN QUENTIN, Mrs. Duncan was heard to say today that she would not go to the gas chamber.

The hearing began at her lawyer's, Frank J. Sullivan, 40, who said Mrs. Duncan had been found guilty of the murder of her daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Duncan, 21, in 1951.

Seek to Avoid Israel Return Britain May Deport Spy Soblen to U.S.

By RICHARD H. GROWALD LONDON, Aug. 7 (UPI)—Government sources hinted today that Britain would deport Soviet spy Robert A. Soblen to the United States rather than let the half-Jumping fugitive slip back to Israel.

Reports flooded London that development was imminent to the case and that Britain might be flown back to the United States today. The report said that the Soviet spy had agreed to take refuge in the U.S. if he could not return to Israel.

There was no official statement of any of the reports, but officials denied that Soblen would be on the 10th of August.

It was reported to report some sort of agreement between the two nations, but it was not clear what the agreement was.

As for the case of the Soviet spy, it was reported that the British government was considering deporting Soblen to the United States.
